Description of Services:

The Imagination Station provides a virtual tutor for each child. The Imagination Station prevents emerging readers from falling behind, identifies students who are at risk of reading failure, automatically provides intervention based on analyzed data and supplements the core reading program.

- * Automatically collects, analyzes and disaggregates grade specific data
- * Screens, diagnoses and delivers differentiated Pre K through 3rd grade instruction
- * Integrates English Language Learners (ELL) strategies and activities
- * Delivers continuous individual progress monitoring
- * Pre K through 3rd grade students, including English Language Learners and at risk students, learn to read fluently with comprehension

Description of Instructor Qualifications:

Teachers will have a bachelor's degree or graduate degree in the subject area of reading and or language arts or closely related field. Teachers will be trained in the use of Istation in several areas:

- * Use of the program to ensure that the teachers can easily place students in the program
- * Use of the assessment (ISIP) in providing benchmark and continuous progress monitoring
- * Use of the reports to ascertain the academic growth and specific needs
- * Use of the downloadable resources to be used with small group instruction.

Description of Evidence of Effectiveness:

Studies depicting Istation's success in narrowing the achievement gap are as follows:

- * K-3 students radically improved reading scores from 60% scoring below grade level at the beginning of the year on the DIBELS assessment to 87% scoring on grade level by the end of the year.
- * First grade students greatly improved. Based on DIBELS assessment the on grade level groups increased from 32% to 92% and Tier III groups were reduced to zero.
- * ELL Kindergarteners increased on grade level from 28% to 62% after using Istation for one year.
