

Travis Middle School
Student Jeans Day

Student “Jeans Day” will be on Fridays, starting September 30, 2005. Students may qualify to wear jeans on Friday of each week, if they...

1. Have no office referrals for the week.
2. Are passing all subjects for the week.
3. Have not missed any assigned office detention.

On Thursday of each week, the vice-principals will post a student roster of all students who qualify for “Jeans Day” in key places throughout the building. Students must meet the criteria from Thursday to Thursday of each week to qualify to wear jeans on Friday.

Students, who qualify for Jeans Day, must wear a school uniform shirt or organizational collared shirt on Fridays. No t-shirts of any kind may be worn on Jeans Day.

Student dress will be checked first period on Friday and any student in jeans which does not qualify for jeans will receive an office referral for disciplinary action.

Teachers may wear jeans on Fridays if they wear school shirt, faculty or organization, collared shirt. No t-shirts of any kind may be worn on Jeans Day.
