

Temporary Emergency Child Care

For Residents of Irving, Texas

Have you lived in Irving since, or before, March 1, 2020?

Have you been financially impacted by COVID-19?

Do you need to—or have you already, returned to a place of employment outside the home, and need help paying for child care?

If you answered YES to all of the questions above, we can help!

The City of Irving is providing three months of child care to eligible residents who have been adversely impacted by the pandemic.

Visit childcaregroup.org/irving to review the eligibility criteria and apply!

For assistance with completing the application, please send an email to irving@ccgroup.org.
